The new year brings several changes to the world of California employment law that surely will impact companies and their HR practices. We will provide an engaging and informative presentation on the state of the law, new legislative and case law changes, and our valuable insights to help employers stay in compliance in 2018. Topics will include:?

- State-wide Ban the Box law
- Sexual harassment prevention training requirements and guidance on effective investigations
- Ban on compensation history inquiries
- Expansion of California's baby bonding eligibility
- Contractor liability for the unpaid wages of its subcontractors' employees

This is a great chance to review what happened in 2017 and become aware of new requirements for 2018. Start off the new year on the right foot!
