

HOGE FENTON SPONSORS THE PRO BONO PROJECT'S ACCESS TO JUSTICE SILICON VALLEY DVLSR AWARDS

Date 11.15.2010
Time
Location Santa Clara University's Adobe Lodge

Hoge Fenton has long been a proud supporter of The Pro Bono Project of Silicon Valley. We are honored to sponsor the organization's 2010 Domestic Violence Limited Scope Representation (DVLSR) "Access to Justice" awards program. This program honors individuals and organizations that have assisted families affected by domestic violence.

A former Hoge Fenton partner who was recently appointed Chief Trial Counsel for the State Bar of California, James E. Towery, will be the featured speaker. Julie Saffren, a Hoge Fenton family law attorney who is renowned for her commitment in the domestic violence area and is a founder of DVLSR, is an active participant in the event.

Related Attorneys

- Natasha M. Parrett