

JENN PROTAS SELECTED BARRISTER OF THE YEAR

The Barristers' Committee presents its Barrister of the Year Award to a new attorney, under 36 years of age and/or in practice less than five years, and who has contributed to the legal profession in both a professional capacity and in pro bono and community activities. Past recipients include David Tsai (Perkins Coie), Andrew Cain (LACY), Julie Saffren, and Shannon Stein (current SCCBA President).

Jenn will be honored at a luncheon in June sponsored by the Committee. Hon. Julie Emede, who previously served as the SCCBA President in 2005, will be the guest speaker.
