HOGE • FENTON

San Jose, Calif., January 9, 2024 - Hoge Fenton, a leading Northern California multi-service law firm, is pleased to announce the elevation of Heather Boshears and Remington Lenton-Young to shareholder status effective January 1, 2024.

"Our newly appointed shareholders strengthen our outstanding group of attorneys and the firm's future leadership," says Daniel Ballesteros, Managing Shareholder of Hoge Fenton. Heather and Remington each exemplify the firm's core values: exceptional client service, community service, and being extraordinary lawyers.

Heather's practice is focused on estate planning and trust administration. She is certified by the State Bar of California as a Specialist in Estate Planning, Trust, and Probate Law and a Certified Public Accountant (CPA), licensed in Colorado. Heather assists clients in creating both basic and complex estate plans, offering guidance throughout the decision-making process and presenting choices in an understandable manner. She takes the time to describe the numerous income and transfer taxes that are involved, including real estate, income, and estate taxes. Learn more about Heather here.

Remington is a member of Hoge Fenton's Intellectual Property Practice Group. His practice is concentrated on complicated commercial civil litigation, encompassing class action, antitrust, patent, trademark, trade secret, and unfair competition cases. In state, federal, and appellate courts, Remington has successfully defended clients from both abroad and the United States. Learn more about Remington here.
