

ALEXANDER H. SIMON

ATTORNEY

408-947-2430

408-287-2583

asimon@hogequenton.com

Litigation group. He assists clients with disputes ranging from general business, complex civil, commercial landlord tenant, employment, and trade secrets litigation to contractual disputes, judgment enforcement, and professional liability. Alex is located in our Silicon Valley office.

Prior to joining Hoge Fenton, Alex was an associate at Greenfield Draa & Harrington LLP, a business litigation firm in San Jose, where he worked with institutional and individual clients to manage all aspects of litigation from inception to resolution. Previously, he was a law clerk and then an associate at Ellis Law Corporation in El Segundo, CA. While in law school, Alex served as a judicial extern to the Hon. Andrea Bryan at the Superior Court of California in Santa Clara County.

Alex is a member of the Honorable William A. Ingram American Inn of Court and the Santa Clara County Bar Association. He is also a Leadership San Jose alumnus and currently serves on the Executive Board of Directors for Movimiento de Arte y Cultura Latino Americana.

Background

Alex received his J.D. at Loyola Law School, and his undergraduate degree in History at Occidental College. While at "Oxy," Alex ran track and cross-country for the Tigers. As a two-time all-American and school record holder, Alex was inducted into Occidental's Track and Field Hall of Fame.

Practice Areas

- Business Litigation
- Ethics and Professional Liability
- Litigation and Dispute Resolution

Education

- J.D., Loyola Law School
- B.A., History, Occidental College

Admissions

- California
- New York

Speaking Engagements & Publications

Author, New COVID-19 Tax Credit for Landlords, June 26, 2020