

BUSINESS LITIGATION ASSOCIATE ALEXANDER H. RAMON JOINS HOGE FENTON

Hoge Fenton is pleased to announce that attorney

Alexander H. Ramon has joined the firm as a member of our Business Litigation practice group. Alex brings several years of broad litigation experience, representing clients in all facets of litigation and trial.

Alex is a member of the Honorable William A. Ingram American Inn of Court and the Santa Clara County Bar Association. He is also a Leadership San Jose alumnus and currently serves on the Executive Board of Directors for Movimiento de Arte y Cultura Latino Americana.

Alex received his J.D. at Loyola Law School, and his undergraduate degree in History at Occidental College. As an undergraduate, Alex ran track and cross-country for the Tigers. As a two-time all-American and school record holder, Alex was inducted into Occidental's Track and Field Hall of Fame.

"We are excited to add Alex to our business litigation practice. His wealth of litigation experience perfectly aligns with Hoge Fenton's rich litigation and trial history," said Alison Buchanan, Chair of the firm's Business Litigation practice group. "Helping our clients achieve their business goals is our first priority. Having deep bench strength helps us do that."
