

CRYSTAL N. RIGGINS TO SPEAK AT SCCBA ON "NUTS & BOLTS OF LITIGATION: WEAPONS OF DISCOVERY"

Date 09/11/2014
Time 5:30 p.m. - 7:30 p.m.
Location Santa Clara County Bar Association, San Jose

Hoge Fenton associate Crystal N. Riggins will speak on a panel at the Santa Clara County Bar Association event, "Nuts & Bolts of Business Litigation: Weapons of Discovery."

The discovery phase of litigation is often the most important part of preparing a case for trial. Discovery – when used properly – can result in allowing parties to obtain the evidence they need to evaluate their dispute, and avoid any "surprises" at the time of trial. This seminar focuses on the practice of discovery and will provide attendees with new tips, techniques, and a few tricks on how to properly conduct discovery.

Topics will include:

- Creating a discovery plan
- Tips on propounding effective written discovery
- Taking effective depositions
- Using alternative procedures for discovery

This seminar will benefit young lawyers in helping them efficiently and effectively plan discovery strategy and more seasoned professionals with insider tips from highly respected plaintiff's and defense attorneys on how they can maximize and enhance their knowledge in this area.

This is an MCLE event. Please click here for more info, registration and pricing. The program is also being offered via live Webcast.