Easier Said Than Done

Zoom Webinar      May 1, 2024 | 8:00 - 10:15 am

Businesses frequently misclassify employees as exempt or independent contractors, for various reasons. The consequences of getting it wrong could be substantial and wide-ranging.

Join Hoge Fenton's Employment Law Team for a comprehensive and interactive discussion on the various tests that apply to worker classifications, how those tests apply in situations that are not black and white, and the consequences of doing it wrong. By workshopping hypothetical scenarios and having an engaging dialogue, we hope to help employers comply with California employment laws and avoid major lawsuits.
