

HOGE FENTON ATTORNEY DENNIS ZELL'S ARTICLE FEATURED IN SF DAILY JOURNAL

San Francisco Daily Journal

ARTICLE

Fraps Do Not Allow a District Court to Alter Allocation of Costs

JUNE 3, 2021

HOGE • FENTON

DENNIS ZELL

ATTORNEY
LITIGATION

Hoge Fenton Attorney Dennis Zell wrote an article that was recently featured in the Daily Journal, "FRAPs Do Not Allow a District Court to Alter Allocation of Costs."

Dennis, a highly accomplished litigator discusses the U.S. Supreme Court's decision to unanimously hold the Federal Rule of Appellate Procedure 39, "Does not permit a district court to alter court appeals' allocation of costs listed in subdivision (e) of that Rule."

Daily Journal subscribers can read the full article here.

Related Attorneys

- Dennis S. Zell