

HOGGE FENTON LAW CLERKS ELEVATED TO ATTORNEYS

Hoge Fenton
Welcomes

Manda McElrath

Attorney, San Jose

HOGGE • FENTON

Hoge Fenton is delighted to announce that we have promoted former law clerks Manda McElrath, Maria Salinas Mendoza, and Peter Singh to attorneys.

Manda interned as a summer law clerk with Hoge Fenton in 2021 and a post-bar law clerk in 2022 before being promoted to associate in November 2022. Maria and Peter joined the firm in September 2022 as post-bar law clerks and were also promoted to associate attorneys in November 2022.

"Hoge Fenton has trained many exceptional attorneys over the years," said Hoge Fenton Managing Shareholder, Dan Ballesteros. "We're grateful to have not one, not two, but three law clerks pass the Bar and become attorneys. They each have promising careers ahead of them and they will bring fresh perspectives to the firm."

Manda McElrath is a member of Hoge Fenton's Business Litigation Practice Group. She is an adaptable litigator who focuses on a vast range of practice areas, including professional liability, employment, and business disputes. Learn more about Manda, here.

Maria Salinas Mendoza is a member of Hoge Fenton's Business Litigation practice group. She is an effective litigator who represents bank agents in intricate real estate disputes involving nondisclosure of facts, easements, and allegations of fraud. Learn more about Maria, here.

Peter Singh is a member of Hoge Fenton's Real Estate and Land Use practice group. He is a versed litigator who focuses on real estate litigation and some transaction work, specifically involving construction, land use, and easement issues. Learn more about Peter, here.

Related Attorneys

- Manda McElrath
- Maria Salinas Mendoza
- Peter A. Singh