Hoge Fenton is a member of the Mackrell International (MI) network. The network enhances our ability to serve clients nationally and internationally for both new and existing clients.

MI has secured its tenth consecutive ranking as a leading global network in the Chambers Directory, a premier legal industry directory.

The Chambers Global Guide ranks the top lawyers, law firms, and law firm networks in more than 190 countries across the world. Rankings are based on in-depth reviews by a dedicated and experienced team of researchers.

"We continue to make waves and make a difference," said Keith Heddle, Managing Director of MI.

The MI network is comprised of 96 member firms representing 4,500 lawyers in more than 60 countries. The network continues to grow its coverage across the globe, focusing on high-caliber, dynamic, full-service law firms who will gain from and add value to the MI ecosystem and provide exceptional client service to businesses of all shapes and sizes.

"Our clients with increasing international legal service needs, trust us with their interests, both personal and professional," remarked Hoge Fenton Shareholder, Sblend Sblendorio. "Membership in MI allows us to cater to that. MI acts as a seamless and strongly-bonded extension of our partnership, and that's a very powerful offer for our clients now and in the future. It's a powerful resource for all our legal professionals."

Keith Heddle, MI's Managing Director, continued, "The unbroken Chambers recognition is a testament to this network's continued excellence – not just in legal and commercial terms, but primarily its vibrant and brilliant people, people who will be there for you in an instant if you need them."
