NATASHA TRAN
2022 BARRISTERS'
VOLUNTEER OF THE YEAR

Hoge Fenton is pleased to announce that Attorney Natasha Tran received the 2022 Barristers' Volunteer of the Year award at the Santa Clara County Bar Foundation's Unsung Heroes ceremony on June 16, 2022, at the Silicon Valley Capital Club.

The event was a celebration of Santa Clara County Bar Association's dedicated Asian American volunteers for community involvement for their broad range of support and services for marginalized communities.

Natasha partnered up with Elevate Community Center this last year to provide legal services for our community's most vulnerable. She helped organized a successful free domestic violence/family law legal clinic last January and is coordinating another clinic with our firm for a Pro Bono Day of Service event, which is taking place June 25, 2022, from 10am - 4pm.
