Peninsula Real Estate in a Post-COVID World

NOVEMBER 10, 2021 | 10:00 - 11:00 AM

HOGE • FENTON

Join our knowledgeable panel on Wednesday, November 10, 2021, from 10:00 - 11:00 a.m. as they give a comprehensive Peninsula market update on:

- Commercial, Investment, and Residential Real Estate Markets
- Development Projects
- Corporate Campuses in a Post-COVID World
- Life Sciences as a Driving Force of Commercial Real Estate
- Dumbarton Rail Corridor and other Infrastructure Projects

The Peninsula's commercial real estate market continued its ascent to record levels in the third quarter despite the Delta variant delaying return-to-work plans according to Collier's 2021 Q3 Report. Construction continues to play a prominent part in the success of the Peninsula, with nearly 5.0 million square feet under construction. The Peninsula's residential housing prices continue to climb and are expected to accelerate in the next year.
