

SARJU NARAN PRESENTING ON THE ISSUES AND CASES ARISING FROM COVID-19 PANEL AT THE 2020 ACBA EMPLOYMENT LAW SYMPOSIUM

ACBA Labor & Employment Section Presents

ACBA EMP LAW SYMPOSIUM

Issues and Cases Arising from
COVID-19

SEPTEMBER 25, 2020

9:00AM - 10:30AM

HOGE • FENTON

SARJU NARAN
Employment Law Chair

Sponsored by the ACBA Labor and Employment Section

This year's Zoom Conference Annual Employment Law Symposium will focus on how COVID-19 has affected our employment practices from various perspectives, including plaintiff's attorneys, defense attorneys, mediators, judges, ethics attorneys, legislative counsel, the Department of Fair Employment and Housing ("DFEH"), the California Labor Commissioner and the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission ("EEOC").

Issues and Cases Arising from COVID-19: 9:00AM – 10:30AM, 1.5 hrs general MCLE credit

This panel, featuring plaintiff's attorney, Katharine Chao, the Legislative Counsel and Policy Director of California Employment Lawyers Association, Mariko Yoshihara, and defense attorney, Sarju Naran, will examine potential claims, cases, and legislative issues arising from the pandemic.

For more details and to register click here.

Event Information

Provider: Alameda County Bar Association

Location: Webinar Phone: 510-302-2222

Date: 09/25/2020, 9:00 AM - 04:15 PM

Credits: 1HR Ethics, 5HR General

Related Attorneys

- Sarju A. Naran