Fenton will be hosting the Leaders Create More Leaders: Leading and Developing Diverse Leaders In-House and in Law Firms, presented by California Minority Counsel Program on Thursday April 18, 2019.

Please join us for this program and networking event bringing together minority lawyers working in law firms and corporations for a roundtable discussion of best practices for developing the next generation of minority lawyers and leaders.

Hoge Fenton, Shareholder Crystal Riggins will be moderating the program along side our panel featuring Merritt Anderson, VP of Employee Experience & Engagement of GitHub, Cassandra Knight,

VP, Chief Litigation Officer of PayPal, and S. Michael Lee, Senior Associate Procopio, Cory, Hargreaves & Savitch LLP.

Possible Topics Include:

- (a) unique issues in leading and managing as a minority,
- (b) debating formal versus informal mentoring systems, and
- (c) balancing providing support with providing opportunities to succeed or learn from failure.

The roundtable will be followed by a hosted networking reception.
