San Jose, Calif., March 16, 2023 – Hoge Fenton, a multi-service law firm, hosted our Silicon Valley Real Estate Breakfast at the Silicon Valley Capital Club. We were delighted to have Mark Salma, Director of Real Estate Development at Robinson Oil Corporation, and Deana Haynes, Director of Commercial Real Estate at ChargePoint, discuss how the exponentially growing electric vehicle market provides significant commercial opportunities for real estate. Hoge Fenton Real Estate & Land Use Chair, Steven Kahn moderated the discussion on how it is critical for real estate companies to invest in infrastructure for this growing segment to remain competitive and maximize profits.

We like to thank our distinguished guests for attending, including Nanci Klein, Director of Economic Development and Cultural Affairs of the City of San Jose.
