Many employers have been understandably distracted over the past two years with issues relating to the pandemic, workforce shortages, supply chain delays, etc. Meanwhile, we are continuing to see an increase in employee lawsuits pertaining to technical wage and hour compliance issues.

It's time to get back to the basics; we will discuss the fundamentals of wage and hour law and understand what needs to be done to avoid the myriad landmines of being a California employer. Join Hoge Fenton's Employment Law Team for a discussion of:

- Meal and rest breaks
- Overtime
- Off the Clock Work
- Exempt Classifications
- Expense Reimbursements

- Wage Statement Compliance
- PAGA and Class Actions
- Recent Wage and Hour Cases
- Best Practices

Our Employment Law Team

Sarju Naran is a zealous advocate for his clients and approaches litigation with creativity and strategy. Chair of Hoge Fenton's Employment Law Group, Sarju's experience spans from representing middle-market and family-owned closely-held businesses to large multi-national companies. He regularly litigates and provides advice and counsel to companies on wage and hour issues, trade secret misappropriation, employee mobility, wrongful termination, performance management, and leaves of absence.

Jenn Protas helps employers navigate California's numerous employment laws and defends employers with an eye toward successful, yet cost-effective resolution. Jenn is a committed advocate for her clients and a tenacious litigator. She defends employers on matters related to wage and hour law, wrongful termination, harassment, discrimination, and retaliation in single-plaintiff litigation, Private Attorney General Act actions, and/or class actions. Jenn's practice also includes housing discrimination matters and business litigation

Maysa Saeed (she/her) is an associate attorney whose practice focuses on employment counseling and litigation and assists clients in all aspects of employment law. Prior to joining Hoge Fenton, Maysa was a litigation associate with experience litigating various commercial, employment, and real estate matters. Maysa's prior legal experience also includes defending insurance carriers in administrative trials before the Workers' Compensation Appeals Boards in San Jose and Salinas.
