We often wish our clients had a time machine so they could go back and make simple quick fixes that would save them hundreds of thousands of dollars in wage and hour liability. In this webinar, we will show employers how California's wage and hour laws can put a company out of business based on simple mistakes and inadvertent errors.

Join Hoge Fenton's Employment Law attorneys as we rewind the clock: from a verdict against an employer after trial to the various opportunities the employer had along the way – from the beginning of the employment relationship to post-termination – to avoid the lawsuit and judgment. Attendees will gain a deeper appreciation of why an ounce of prevention is worth its weight in gold.
