The pandemic has brought the remote workforce concept into the mainstream, and working remotely on a daily basis is here to stay. This trend may have a deep and long-lasting impact on the Tri-Valley's residential and commercial real estate markets.

Families and businesses may move to the Tri-Valley, as it offers a high quality of life and access to San Francisco and Silicon Valley. Families and businesses are also leaving California altogether. The trends may affect the Tri-Valley residential and commercial real estate markets for years to come.

Join Hoge Fenton and Innovation Tri-Valley Leadership Group for the Tri-Valley Real Estate Breakfast webinar on March 2, 2021, from 8:00 - 9:00 am. We will hear from our panelists on how the remote work trend has impacted Tri-Valley's work dynamic, residential, and commercial real estate markets.
