"Alison has been an excellent business partner to my role as general counsel for a large organization. She understands the need for adequate lead time to involve others internally on key strategic decisions. Alison is exceptionally bright, anticipating issues and offering sound practical business solutions. She strikes the right balance about when to seek my input and when to make decisions on her own. Importantly, she is an exceptional writer; she always meets my expectations on product quality. Alison is my "go to" lawyer when I need sound, prompt advice on time sensitive matters. I would give her the highest recommendation to other general counsel."

"In her representation of my firm, Ms. Buchanan repeatedly demonstrated a skill set that included both a general and case-specific intellect, and appropriate aggressiveness that achieved an excellent result. She was at all times professional and personable while maintaining an adversarial posture. Alison is someone I want in my corner in any future litigation."

"Alison represented my law partner and I in a malpractice suit. Needless to say, it was a very difficult time for us and opposing counsel was extremely unreasonable. Alison maintained grace and determination despite our obvious distress and opposing counsel's very poor behavior. She was the consummate professional and we felt she was very well-prepared for our trial. Alison worked well with us and her litigation team members, but it was clear that Alison knew all aspects of the case. Alison has a wonderful work ethic and obtained an excellent result for us. I cannot say enough nice things about her abilities."

"I have had the opportunity to be represented by Alison Buchanan on two occasions. I can say without hesitation or qualification she is an extremely competent attorney. She is both knowledgeable in the area of legal malpractice and an excellent tactician."
