PRACTICE OVERVIEW

Dan Ballesteros is an aggressive litigator, with the knowledge and experience to create leverage for your case. Dan's practice focuses on real estate disputes, arising out of the purchase, sale, leasing, secured lending, ownership and/or use of real property. Dan represents businesses, LLCs, partnerships and individuals in all phases of litigation, arbitration and mediation.

Dan has successfully represented brokers, sellers and buyers in cases involving the nondisclosure of defective conditions, mortgage brokers and lenders in serial ADA litigants, against misrepresenting borrowers as well as wrongful foreclosure actions, owners in cases involving partition, possession and nuisance, neighbors in cases involving prescriptive easements, boundary line disputes and encroachment, individual members of LLCs and partnerships regarding issues of governance and control of profits, and tort claims by and against third parties.

RECENT MATTERS

- Prosecuted partition action by sister against brother involving 40-unit apartment building
- Defended buyer's agent in claim by buyer for non-disclosure related to $14M purchase of unfinished spec home
- Represented majority members of LLC against minority regarding governance and farming issues for 240 acres subject to Williamson Act
- Defended limited partner and guarantor against $6.5M claim by lender
- Defended former cleanroom tenant against action by landlord regarding condition of HVAC system
- Prosecuted claims of the minority owner of a $20M retail mall against fraudulent majority owner
- Defended Hotel owner against claims by serial ADA plaintiff, including website accessibility

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES

Dan has served as a member of the Executive Committee of the Real Property Law Section of the California State Bar. He has been an advisor to CEB on real property law publications and has served three terms as chair of the Santa Clara County Bar Association's Real Property Law Section. Dan teaches an evidence module course for the Stanford Law School Trial Advocacy program, has taught Real Estate Principles at De Anza College and is a member of the American Inns of Court. He was recently identified as a "Super Lawyer" by San Francisco Magazine for the ninth year in a row.

FIRM LEADERSHIP

Dan has been with Hoge Fenton since 1989. He joined the hiring committee as an associate in 1992. He became a shareholder in 1997 and has served multiple terms as a practice group leader, having chaired (at different times) both the Real Estate and Litigation departments. He has served as the firm's Managing Shareholder since 2013.
