PRACTICE OVERVIEW

Steven Davidson is an Associate in Hoge Fenton's Real Estate and Land Use Practice Group. Steven's practice focuses on real estate disputes and litigation. He represents individuals, families, trusts, real estate professionals, insurers, municipalities, and businesses.

Before joining Hoge Fenton, Steven worked as an Associate in a civil litigation firm in the Peninsula and Tri-Valley, where he prepared pleadings, motions, briefs, and discovery. Steven also prepared strategies for and conducted mediations, depositions, and hearings. He oversaw the preparation of witnesses, the collection of evidence, and the presentation of cases in court.

BACKGROUND

Steven graduated from Santa Clara University School of Law, and received the High Tech Law Certificate, with honors, with a concentration in corporate law. This certificate was awarded for his commitment to studying business and intellectual property law. Steven was also awarded the CALI Excellence for the Future Award® for Statutory Analysis and served as the Real Estate Law Society Vice President for Landlord and Tenant Law.
