“At the heart of every company are its employees. Employees can be a company’s greatest asset and also its greatest source of legal risk. The risks can be particularly challenging in California, where the cards appear to be stacked against employers and the technical ‘gotchas’ and penalties are abundant. I collaborate with employers to shape their employment practices, help develop and maintain a positive corporate culture, address compliance issues strategically, and navigate through disputes that are often nuanced and emotionally charged.” —Sarju Naran

BACKGROUND

Sarju Naran is a zealous advocate for his clients, and approaches litigation with creativity and strategy.

Chair of the Employment Law Group, Sarju’s experience spans from representing middle-market and family-owned closely held businesses to large multi-national companies. He regularly litigates and provides advice and counsel to companies on:

- Wage and hour issues
- Trade secret misappropriation
- Employee mobility
- Wrongful termination
- Performance management
- Leaves of absence
- Other high-risk matters

Sarju appreciates that litigation can be an unwelcome distraction to business operations, and often comes at high financial and intangible cost. As such, Sarju is committed to representing his clients with an eye toward prevention, compliance, mitigation, and efficiency.

Sarju spent his first five years of practice with Hoge Fenton, then was an associate with Paul Hastings Janofsky & Walker, LLP in Palo Alto for four years before rejoining Hoge Fenton in May 2010.

WHAT CLIENTS ARE SAYING

- "Top notch, detail-oriented attorney who offers well-rounded advice! We came to Sarju because another well-known law firm had botched up our legal matter. Sarju and his team was instrumental in reviewing the case, implementing a new legal strategy and was able to get us the settlement result we desired. Highly recommended! Detail oriented, puts your best interests first, gets the job done right the first time -- what more can you ask for? An amazing attorney without the big price tag."

- "Sarju Naran represented me over the course of almost one year in negotiations with a long-time employer with which I had become separated. During this engagement Sarju was expert in his knowledge of relevant law; sensitive to my unique circumstance; and seasoned in that representation. Sarju listened well, and clearly understood my needs, desires, and position throughout the negotiations. He was also very clear and supportive regarding the range of options I could pursue, and offered valued opinions, when sought, regarding the options I should take. I couldn't have asked for a better advocate throughout what was a personally difficult matter."
- "Sarju provided excellent representation for an employment case. He was knowledgeable and kept the matter within our budget goals. He worked well with different personalities within the client company. I highly recommend Sarju and look forward to working with him again."
- "I enthusiastically without reservation recommend Sarju Naran. Sarju Naran represented me and my company in a lawsuit brought by an employee for wrongful termination. In our first meeting, he developed a strategy that turned out to be brilliant, saving me tens if not hundreds of thousands of dollars and many months if not years of time. He stayed on budget, strategized on ways to keep the costs down, communicated promptly and efficiently, and he listened carefully to me. I was particularly impressed with a side of him I did not expect to see in my attorney: he was an investigator. He left no stone unturned to independently discover the facts. Within a couple of weeks, he knew more about my former employee and his past deviant history than I could believe. He also came to my office and personally uncovered hours of inappropriate computer use by my former employee and he personally interviewed my staff. It was extremely satisfying to witness Mr. Naran investigate the facts and circumstances of the lawsuit and to discover the truth on his own. Litigation is emotionally difficult to say the least. Mr. Naran helped in this area too by helping me to focus on doing my job while he did his job. The entire experience, while unpleasant by its very nature, was nevertheless completely satisfying. I do not believe I could have had any better representation. I am pleased beyond any expectation I had."
- "Very satisfied. My experience working with Sarju felt like I was his only client, although I'm sure he had multiple things going at the same time. Experience was top notch."
- "I know that I was receiving seasoned and best-in-class representation throughout."

REPRESENTATIVE MATTERS

- Obtained temporary injunctive relief to prevent a Fortune 100 employer from interfering with a Chief Technical Officer's new position with another Fortune 100 employer by attempting to enforce an out-of-state non-compete agreement in California
- Settled—through direct negotiations, mediation, and often pre-litigation—dozens of employee claims for alleged overtime violations, exemption misclassification, missed meal and rest break claims, disability discrimination, age discrimination, sexual harassment, retaliation, and unfair competition
- Advised and counseled an international company through the one and one-half year-long process of closing one of its California plants, including guidance through WARN compliance, and drafting retention agreements, relocation agreements, and separation agreements
- On the eve of trial, successfully resolved a highly contentious lawsuit for nuisance value, where a former employee sued for alleged unpaid commissions and the client employer filed a cross-action for trade secret misappropriation based on documents uncovered through litigation
- Favorably resolved numerous sexual harassment lawsuits based on uncovering damaging and provocative employee information through inexpensive computer forensics and informal investigation of publicly-available social media postings
- Obtained a temporary restraining order and preliminary injunction preventing a former sales employee of a franchisee business from unlawfully competing through the use of his former employer's client lists, pending and completed transaction lists, and other confidential, proprietary, and trade secret information
- On behalf of a prominent national Silicon Valley-based company, conducted HR investigations of complaints lodged against a Vice President for alleged disability discrimination and retaliation
